CHAIRMAN MESSAGE

Y.M. Datuk Raja Azahar Bin Raja Abdul Manap

PJN, DIMP, KMN, AMN

Malaysian security business has a growing market, largely driven by the influx of very high end electronic IC components & modules manufacturing industry where the value of manufactured products is extremely expensive and lucrative business for exploitation by hijackers.

This is in addition to the rising level of commercial criminality, not with standing the fact that, with people & entities getting richer, the needs for protection rises in equal proportion. The largest clients who fall victim to the above activities include the Financial, Commercial & Education Institutions, and the various industries. While the Home Minister had previously set a ceiling of 800 security companies that could take advantage of the situation and offer a blend of security services to the industries and institutions alike, there is lurking behind the issue of supply of legal Nepalese Guards to the security companies, in the face of current recruitment policies of the Nepalese Government.

V-Global formed against these background, is cognisant of the challenges ahead and its core management team had the foresight to be a strategical partner with local Nepali training academy duly managed by former high ranked field force. With the centre in place, and the local agencies entrenched support, V-Global is well poised to fill in the expected gap in the supply of legal literate Security Guards, Being a member of the PIKM, the managements will take all necessary measure to meet the Standard and Audit requirements the Home Minister in order to avail whatever facilities that can be harnessed.

Besides, most of the clients' preoccupation with personal and business security has specifically increased the demand for hi-tech electronic security equipment, such as intelligent closed circuit televisions (CCTVs), smart access control system, predictive surveillance technology, smoke detectors as well as trained surveillance security professionals.

Whereas, keeping abreast of these technologies i itself, is a daunting task, it is imperative that V-Global should embark on technology assisted guarding earnestly, in order to stay ahead of the competition.

With all these challenges, V-Global will strive to serve the security industry professionally, manned with legal Guards, delighting its customers with varied services options enhancing both people, building assets and the business security.
